b&nb Herengracht

A true escape on the 'Gentlemen's Canal'

Wake up to the aroma of freshly self-made coffee in the heart of the city at this gorgeous b&nb (bed & no breakfast) with three luxurious rooms on one of Amsterdam's most stunning canals – the Herengracht (Gentlemen's Canal). Snuggled within a beautifully renovated 16th-century townhouse, this bolthole with a souterrain, canal view and garden view room is ideal for lazy strolls along the 400-year-old canals or a lingering brunch at one of the charming cafés mere steps away. The Anne Frank House, Dam Square, Central Station and the city's famous 'Nine Streets' shopping destination are all within walking distance. Thanks to its fantastic location and design – which includes a remarkable 5-metre-long bespoke artwork by renowned Dutch artist Barbara Broekman in the souterrain – b&nb Herengracht guarantees guests an immersive city jaunt in a classic location.

About Vondel Hotels

Vondel Hotels is an exclusive collection of 4-star hotels, luxury apartments and a b&nb, plus two stunning restaurants: all veritable draw-cards for business and leisure travellers alike. Each property bears the blueprint of hotelier and founder Arjen van den Hof who imbues each one with a simple yet remarkable concept: the creation of extraordinary interiors through an idiosyncratic clash of contemporary art and historical features. Throw outstanding hospitality and personal service into the mix and it's easy to see why Vondel Hotels is so successful.

The Vondel Hotels portfolio comprises: Hotel Vondel with restaurant JOOST, Hotel Roemer, b&nb Herengracht, Hotel JL N° 76, Hotel De Hallen with restaurant Remise47, Apartments Prinsengracht, Apartments De Hallen, Hotel de Jonker (2017) en Hotel Overtoomse Houthandel (2018).
