Restaurant 'urban bistro' Remise47

A hip hotspot for locals and visitors alike

Within a former tram depot, restaurant Remise47 is where locals and visitors converge to dine and socialise. The perfect spot within Hotel De Hallen for a healthy breakfast, a working lunch, to catch up with friends for a drink and a quick bite or indulgent dinner. Serving an accessible 'urban bistro' cuisine, guests can savour classic French and international modern dishes, washed down with excellent wines and imaginative cocktails. Classics on the menu include steak tartare, Caesar salad, entrecote and Black Angus hamburger. Remise47 also serves a weekly changing 3-course chef's special

This vibrant place with a beautiful terrace is part of the 2,700-square-metre De Hallen complex in Amsterdam which also features a library, cinema, boutiques and an indoor food market – all on its doorstep. Guest are more than welcome in the amazing former tram depot full of contemporary art & design!

About Vondel Hotels

Vondel Hotels is an exclusive collection of 4-star hotels, luxury apartments and a b&nb, plus two stunning restaurants: all veritable draw-cards for business and leisure travellers alike. Each property bears the blueprint of hotelier and founder Arjen van den Hof who imbues each one with a simple yet remarkable concept: the creation of extraordinary interiors through an idiosyncratic clash of contemporary art and historical features. Throw outstanding hospitality and personal service into the mix and it's easy to see why Vondel Hotels is so successful.

The Vondel Hotels portfolio comprises: Hotel Vondel with restaurant JOOST, Hotel Roemer, b&nb Herengracht, Hotel JL N° 76, Hotel De Hallen with restaurant Remise47, Apartments Prinsengracht, Apartments De Hallen, Hotel de Jonker (2017) en Hotel Overtoomse Houthandel (2018).
